Corporate Training Program

Dan Floros is a GLOBALLY renowned business-mentor who helps small to medium size business owners reach their objectives faster than they ever thought possible - by establishing clarity, focus, & simplicity on what really matters.

The Results Orientated Strategies outlined in this program form the foundation of all great successes as practiced by high achieving individuals.

The Power of Clarity with Dan Floros – the fundamental skills you MUST master to move in the top 3% of Knowledge Professionals in the 21st Century

Why do the minority of business executives and their teams achieve all their professional and personal objectives faster than they ever thought possible whilst the others simply dream of what is possible? The key lies in deciding what is important to you, your people, and your organisation and delegating everything else. During this program, your people will learn to:

- Identify why the majority of human beings “fail”
- Understand the psychology of high achieving people
- Review the twin Laws of Underachievement
- Learn how to invest your time for a 1000% return
- Why thinking on paper is the key to unlocking your subconscious mind
- Establish a list of reasons to build momentum
- Discover how to control your day
- Define and articulate your Major Definite Purpose
- Build greater degrees of balance in your professional and personal life
- Identify your key values, and how they can be deployed for positive results with others
- Apply the power of Brainstorming to all challenging situations
- Develop the habit of investing in yourself and others
- Understand how to go from Clarity to Results in the shortest period of time
- Positively influence others around you through your accumulated actions
- Isolate and overcome key bottlenecks in your career

Increase your effectiveness by establishing complete clarity on what really matters to you, your organisation, and your people.

Over 95% of people have no clear outcomes in their professional and personal lives.

Over 97% of knowledge workers could dramatically increase their results with the ideas taught in this training program.

- The five best time-saving strategies ever discovered to double your results in half the time
